Haiti - Damaged optical fiber : Digicel teams brave the danger and repair 29/04/2024 10:20:10 Sunday April 26, in a note, Digicel informs all of its customers, and the public in general, that "as of April 27, 2020, the company suffered several attacks against its international fiber optic. Digicel Haiti, one of Haiti's biggest telecom companies, said one of its cables was cut on Thursday in the community of Martissant near the capital of Port-au-Prince, considered ground zero for warring gangs. The cable affects customers in Haiti's western region, and it also had been severed. With thousands of doctors, nurses, aid workers and troops descending on Port-au-Prince in the last week to join more than 800 non-governmental organizations (NGOs) already there, reporters on the ground have observed that the damage done to the telecommunications infrastructure is hampering.
